Principal's Message

Dear Rebels, it has indeed been a pleasure to be with you this past year. I have found each of you to be a most cooperative, friendly and helpful Rebel, especially to someone new on the campus. This is one of the reasons I am very proud to be the principal of Savanna. It has indeed been said, "Each moment in life comes but once, make the most of it."

You are becoming today what you are to be tomorrow. My hope is that each of you have grown in every way during this past year. I hope your education in the various subjects has enabled you to think more clearly and solve problems more easily. I hope you have also grown in your ability to understand yourself and your fellowman, as throughout your life you will be associating with people. Have you learned to be friendly, cooperative and understanding of people?

Finally I hope you are growing in your appreciation of truth, beauty, and goodness. If you are developing in these areas, you have found the ingredients of a happy life and you will continually exemplify the spirit of Savanna High School.

Mr. Nielsen

As a new member of the Savanna family I've come to realize what the many hundreds of things are that go together to make up the "Savanna Spirit." The most evident ingredient however is the student body who in their diversity come together to form a truly unique component of this fine school. The faculty and staff have likewise contributed a portion to the "mystique" which affects all who spend a portion of their life at 310 N. Gilbert. Acceptance here is open to all and each may take away to his outside life a new and different manner of living. May the "Savanna Spirit Live Forever."

Another year has quickly passed by. Every year presents new and exciting challenges for students and faculty. With school board elections, the entering of new students from far away lands, and the closing of some schools, this year has been no exception. Savanna High School can be proud of its achievements in having met these challenges. It is very gratifying to be a part of Savanna High School.

During the past three years, it has been my privilege and gratification to watch you develop into outstanding ladies and gentlemen. You have exhibited a sense of responsibility for your developing leadership. May these qualities culped with the knowledge you have gained during your stay here, help you become an asset to the greatest adventure of all the adventures you have yet dreamed of undertaking. It is my hope and prayer that you will continue to contribute to our community, our country, the world as you have done in the past. Congratulations and best wishes.

President's Message

Another school year is at the end, and what a year it has been. The Rebels "won the war" during the summer when our school was threatened by closure — Rebel Spirit.

Our athletic teams proved to be not only powerful but successful. Our activities were unsurpassed. The administration, faculty, P.T.A. and students came together in a close working relationship, and the involvement by the Rebel Student Body put other high schools to shame.

A special thanks to Mr. Anderson, and my council — an A.S.B. President could ask for no better.

Good luck to the graduating class of "80." May all your dreams come true.

Bill Shuler

Student Council

Being a member of council was not an easy job. A member of the Student Council spent long hours planning activities for the students to become involved in and enjoy. Time was spent organizing dances, selecting bands, and painting signs. Council met formally second period. Besides planning Fright Night, homecoming week, spirit week and most dances; Council provided a ping-pong table and volleyball court for students to use during lunch. An all school survey was taken to ask students what they wanted to see at Savanna. As a result the council decided to hold open meetings to let students participate. The big change for the group was the move from the activities office to room 17. A major clean-up was needed. The council turned it from the old drama junk room to a clean sharp student activity room for council, yearbook and song and cheer. During the year the council contributed a great deal to the school and its students. All the effort and hard work behind their endeavors proved Student Council to be outstanding Rebels.

Academics

Back To Basics

It is highly important for everyone to know how to write a complete thought, a sentence. Many students do not know what a subject or verb is. The solution is to get back to basics. This past year the English department focused on grammer, composition, and a little bit of literature. For more advanced students college prep and university prep classes were offered. Yearbook, Newspaper, and Drama were also offered. New English teachers were Mr. Dobkins from Brookhust, Mrs. Rank from Cresent, and Mrs. Caddick from Apollo. Department chairman, Mr. Shore describes the department, "We achieve a high academic standard and intend to maintain it."

Facts and Figures

" I don't understand", "Explain it again", "What is a sphere?" These are common complaints usually heard from math students at Savanna, Students had the good fortune of having patient, interested teachers; like department chairmen, Mr. Ferguson; who were willing to spend time explaining. Classes offered were Algebra I an II, Trigonametry, Analytical Geometry, Elementary Functions, Consumer, Practical, and Plain and Solid Geometry. Although math is not a well liked subject, it is a much needed one. Everyone needs to know how to add and subtract at the very least. For some it is interesting to learn about log rhythms or theorems. The math department had a wide choice of classes to suit everyones needs.

Artistic Hands Create

The Art Department consisted of four classes this year. Drawing and painting I, II and III were taught by Mr. Hastings. These classes taught the students to use their imagination and the different techniques of drawing and painting. Some of the skills taught were gester and contour, perspective drawing, color usage, line and soft shading working with transparent and opaque water based paints. Many outstanding art works were displayed in the display window outside of room 14.

Ceramics I, II and III were taught by Mr. Silvey. In ceramics I, students were taught basic hand building techniques and made projects such as the coil pot, slab pot and drinking cups. In ceramics II and III students learned to use the pottery wheel and more difficult techniques like wheel throwing. After required projects were completed students were allowed to make projects of their choice, the most popular were projects made on the pottery wheel.

Voices In Harmony

This year there were three classes of music taught. Zero period, the Madrigals practiced bright and early every morning. In the long run all of their hard work paid off. They gave an excellent performance at the Jazz Festival in Bellflower, and again at the Jazz Band's Concert, as guest performers. Second period Concert Choir was made up of more than 50 students all putting forth a great effort to sing in unison, which was extremely difficult considering the amount of students, but somehow they always pulled through. Concert Choir accompanied by the Madrigals put on a stunning performance in our very own auditorium. At Holiday in Music Concert Choir and Madrigals were said to be one of the best performing groups. Fourth period the Women's Choir, a very small group of girls, worked hard together. Since they were such a small group, that meant they had to work harder than any of the other groups, and that is exactly what they did. Under the direction of Mrs. Caddick the girls gave an inspiring performance in our auditorium. All together the music department put together another year of fantastic performances.

The Sound Of Music

This year's instrumental classes were directed by Mr. Mark Lowery, a newcomer from Lexington Jr. High. The classes he taught this year were Marching Band 0-1 periods, two guitar classes and the award-winning jazz band. Concert Band began around the second semester with the usual flare of great sound the Savanna Band is known for. Although this was Mr. Lowery's first year with us, he proved to keep up the high standards and the REBEL PRIDE that has long been a tradition throughout Savanna's history.

Helping Hands

To be a school aide is to do all of the little things in a class that a teacher might not have time to do. Grading papers, running errands and sometimes taking roll are all a part of this job. The office aides are responsible for call slips being sent out, working with the copy machines and filing school information. All school and office aides alike, receive school credit for helping out. They are a great help to all of us, teachers, administration and students too. Thank-you aides.

Head Start

Some students wonder what R.O.P. stands for. It is the Regional Occupational Program. This program provides training designed to prepare students for future occupations. Mr. Purcell was in charge of the Regional Occupational Program this year. Some of the most popular classes this year were, animal care, auto mechanics, cosmetology, and the medical courses. Students received credits for these classes if they attended daily. With the experience one gets from R.O.P. his future should be bright and fulfilling.

Gettin' Down To Business

The business field is a competitive and challenging field to go into. Students at Savanna have a very good business program, which gives the advantage over other students entering this field. These classes are not required but the students enjoy taking them because of the variety of classes offered. Some of them are Accounting, Business Machines, Typing, and Shorthand. Mr. Cross and Mr. Richey, Department Chairmen, work together as a team that makes Savanna's business department one we can be proud of.

Como Estaś

In the past the foreign language department at Savanna offered French, German, and Spanish. Unfortunatly, this year only Spanish was taught. Mr. Koskela was the only teacher for the Spanish classes, therefore, he was the department chairman. Hopefully in the future our foreign language department will become as strong as it once was. Mr. Koskela had to take on a big job teaching 207 students without any assistant. Thanks to Mr. Koskela's fine efforts, Savanna will still have a foreign language department next year.

Future Einsteins

The chairman of the science department this year was Mr. Yingst. Some of the classes offered were Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Life and Physical Science. Unfortunatly, there was no Science Club this year. They had a mini computer for those students who had problems with their work. It really helped them a great deal. They had a veteran Rebel faculty in the science department, with each doing a great deal to enrich our experiences in that particular field of science.

What's In A Book

A typical Savanna reading class was not just kicking back and reading the top sellers. Students worked on employment problems having to do with resumes, learned how to fill out applications, and practiced vocabulary and spelling. Mrs. Bosna taught the reading classes. Reading was offered to any and all students but was aimed especially for those who had specific reading problems. Reading is entertaining and very educational.

How It Happened

Who set up our first constitution? How was California discovered? When did the Civil War end? Typical questions like these are easily answered after a student has completed one of Savanna's social science classes: U.S. History, U.S. Government, Economics, and California History. The social science classs used films, outlines, and literature to explain about our historical and economic background. U.S. History was a required class for juniors. U.S. Government and either Economics or California History was required for seniors. Social Science is a fascinating subject.

Making It Happen

The Home Economics Department was taught by Mrs. Boyer and Mrs. Gerstner. Creative needle craft, fashion design, cooking and nursery school were the classes taught this past year. All students (male and female) were required to cover certain learning activities, including market orders on a fixed budget, learning the effect of some foods on others (such as flour and yeast) and about nutrition. There were also two sewing classes with students learning how to save money by making their own clothes, hand bags and using guides for buying materials. The information these students learned will be helpful to them in the near and distant future.

Certain classes attract a certain type of student. Industrial art classes attract the person who likes to work with his (or her) hands, be creative and use machines. Classes offered were Wood I, II, and III; Drafting; and Auto I, II, III. Experienced teachers Mr. Hoffman, department head and Mr. McNally offered time and assistance to future carpenters, draftsmen, and mechanics.

Wood shop students learned to work with machines such as the chipper, tablesaw, and joiner. After making required projects the students were allowed to make wood objects of their choice. The most popular being tables and water beds.

Beginning automotive students learned to rebuild engines, starters and other basic engine parts. Advanced students moved into use of electronic equipment such as the scope diagnosing machine, the infra-red tester and the VAT-28 tester.

Although the classes appealed mostly to males many females became involved in the wide expanse of industrial art.

Working Hard Playing Hard

For some people a good way to unwind in the day was to have a P.E. class. There were some juniors and seniors who enrolled in the physical education classes just to get away from a totally academic schedule. There was a wide variety of classes offered, such as: Basketball, Badminton, Conditioning, Football, Gymnastics, Soccer, Scubadiving, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Volleyball, and weightlifting. So there was something for everybody' needs. This year, Mr. Smick, did a fine job as chairman of the physical education dept. along with assistant chairman Miss Diane Owen.

Special Ed. Dept. Expands

It is typical for every student to have problems coping with the work load at some time during the busy school year. For some the problems seem more difficult and not easy to comprehend. Special attention is given to Rebs who need to go slower and cover material carefully. Classes were divided up into groups of students; aphasic, multi-handicapped, emotionally disturbed, and educationally handicapped. Patient teachers and aides helped these Rebs to improve and discover their skills. The very special students were very much of Savanna in 1979-1980 and attended football games and assemblies and were proud and very spirited.

Academic Team In Winning Style

The Academic Decathlon Team was selected by counselors on the basis of grade point average. The team was divided into three catagories; Varsity, Honors, and Scholastic. The Orange County competition was held at Chapman College. In November the team competed against other schools in different categories; Varsity, Honors, and Scholastic. The Orange County competition was held at Chapman College. Inside The Classroom

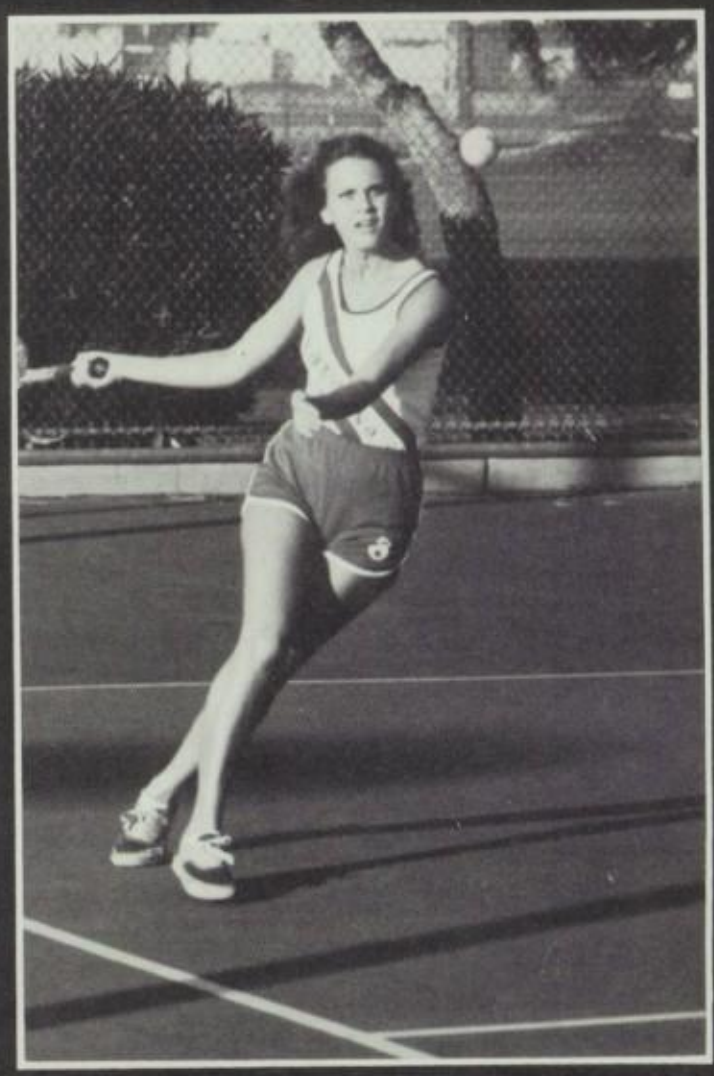
Activities

September

On Monday, September 10, 1979 at 8:25 am a bell rang announcing a new beginning; a new school year. Classes were in progress. Teachers frantically tried to organize seating charts and roll sheets. New sophomores simply wanted to find their classrooms. "The Career Center is the orange door, assistant principal is blue, activities office is yellow, or was it green, pink?" September days were hot. Swimming was the choice elective to take. The mercury pushed into the 100°'s. The smog was heavy and choking and 3rd degree smog alerts were in affect. Most physical education classes were held in the gym. The dedicated athletic teams: football, volleyball, tennis, and cross country practiced daily. The football team put out an effort against Mayfair, Rancho Alamitos, and Norco but was overpowered. Class rings and school pictures were delivered to juniors and sophomores while seniors dressed in their best outfits for color portraits. Orange County was eliminated from the odd-even gas plan and everybody let out a sigh of relief and threw out their extra odd-even license plates. During September the heat played an important part of the fires in Southern California. Many homes were destroyed from flames. Eventually all fires were contained but for a smoldering week many homes were in danger. Jimmy Carter smiled and said, "cut back on energy." Rebels braved the heat and made it through the month.

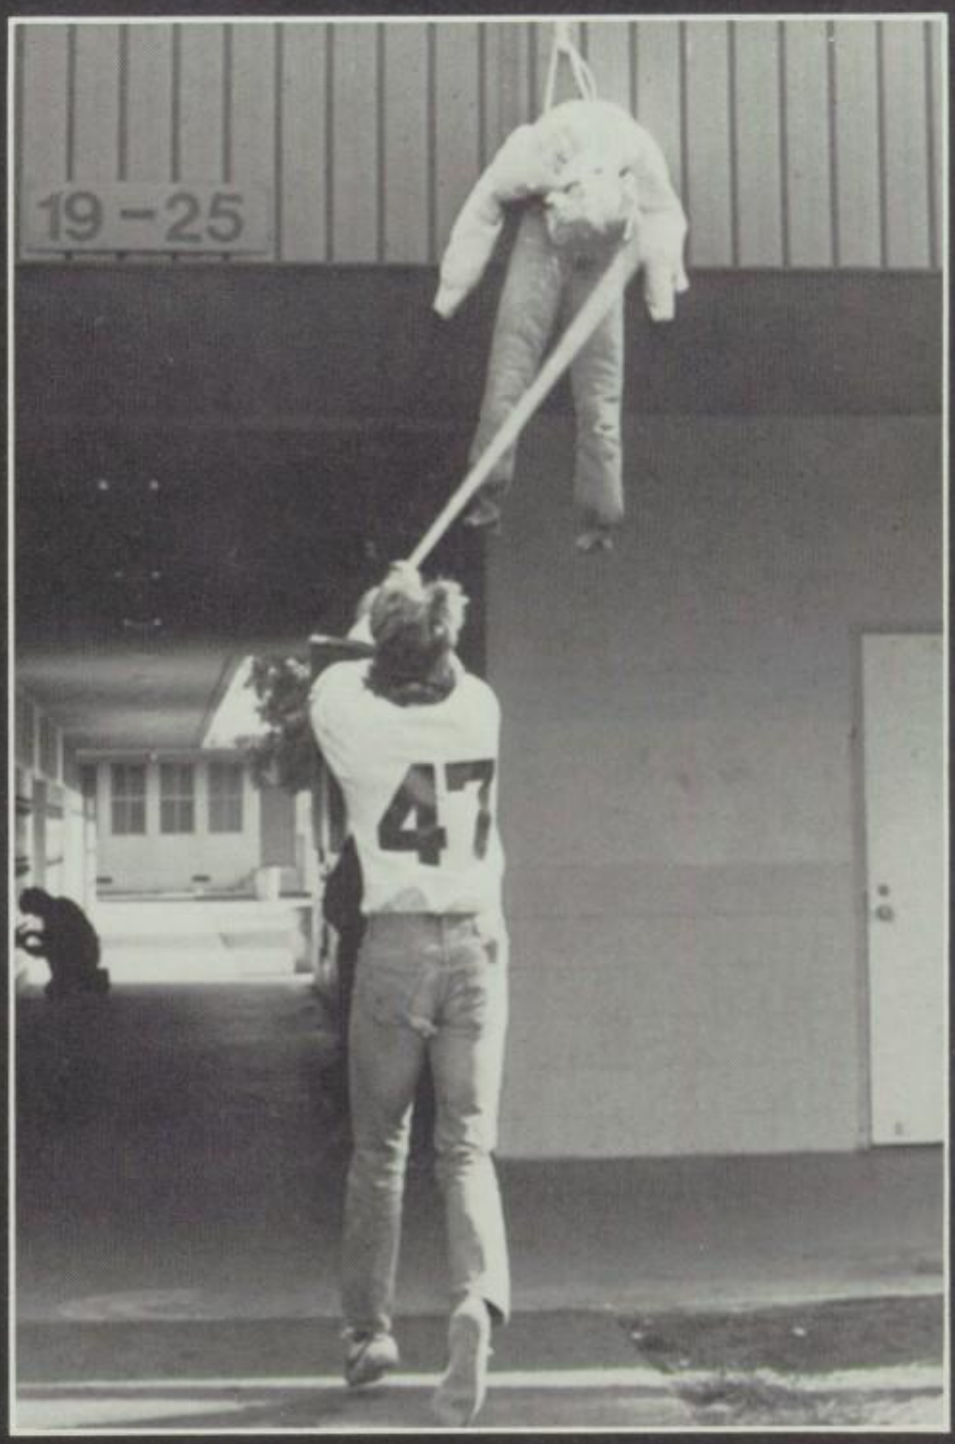


October

October was homecoming month. Rebs participated in a busy, fun-filled week of scuzz outs, marshmallows, assemblies, and red and white colors. The weather was an average 70° degrees so girls could wear their new fall knit sweaters without feeling uncomfortable. Thursday, October 4th was a blue day for many. Mr. Robert Maib, activities coordinator, was transferred to Kennedy High School to act as Vice-Principal. Rebels will always remember his spirit and pride in all he gave to Savanna. Senior pictures were delivered and the first issue of The Dispatch was distributed. Girls' athletics had a very victorious month. Volleyball was still undefeated. Varsity Football pushed and battled but just couldn't get it together until the night of the homecoming game when the big red machine clearly mashed the Sentinels to the ground. The night before the big game, a group of students from Magnolia had vandelized the Savanna School walls with spray paint. The team was so angry at the incident that they played the best game of the season. The Song and Cheer held a pep rally on the 5th. The mighty marching rebels came away from the Artesia Parade and the Silverado Days Parade with first place trophies. CSF sold yummy candy suckers and pep club sold homecoming mums. Girls' League sold Halloween Ghostie Grams. October 16, Savanna had a big turnout for Back To School Night where parents became acquainted with their student's teachers. Homecoming was one wild and crazy week. Nurds, cowboys, mickey mouse, and grandparents ate marshmallows, played in toothpaste and viewed a ski movie. Wednesday, the 2nd the mighty marching rebels performed in the Band and Drill Team Spectacular. Alfred Hitchcock's thriller Psycho and the horror flick Devils Rain were shown on the Fright Night. Saturday the 27th the homecoming dance was held at Buena Park Community Center. Halloween was a special dress day. Some unusual costumes included Tweety Bird and Sylvester, Jimmy Carter and a Warewolf. Orange County experienced a few minor earthquakes luckily no major damage occured. The Best of Saturday Night Live was televised every Wednesday night. Led Zepplin put out their long awaited new album and Fleetwood Mac came to the Forum. October came and passed away, hardly seemed to last a day.

November

November was the month that hot chocolate attracted students to come to school early for a warm cup of the tasty treat. Varsity volleyball went to CIF for the second consecutive year. Both varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams were undefeated in the Freeway League. The football teams, varsity and sophomore, put out an effort but just could not make it to the top. CSF, NHS, and the class houses held their monthly meetings. Student Council took an all school survey to determine what the students wanted out of their Student Council. The first quarter ended (one down, three to go) and progress reports were distributed. Rebs had their first school holiday, Veterans Day. Issue no. 2 of The Dispatch was distributed. Release, a hot rock and roll band, performed on the 21st, during lunch. John, Paul, George, and Ringo fans attended Beatlefeast at the Bonaventure Hotel. Everyone stuffed themselves with turkey over Thanksgiving holidays. The first wrestling match on the 29th. The Savanna Drama Club put on an entertaining series of one act plays. Orange County back on the odd-even plan. It always seemed we needed gas when it was not our day. Iranian terrorists supported by Ayatalloh Khomaini held American hostages in the U.S. Embassy demanding the return of the Shah of Iran who was being treated for cancer in New York City. Anaheim Board of Education members Katherine Wright and James Bonnell were recalled on the Nov. 6th election and Rebels pushed on to December.

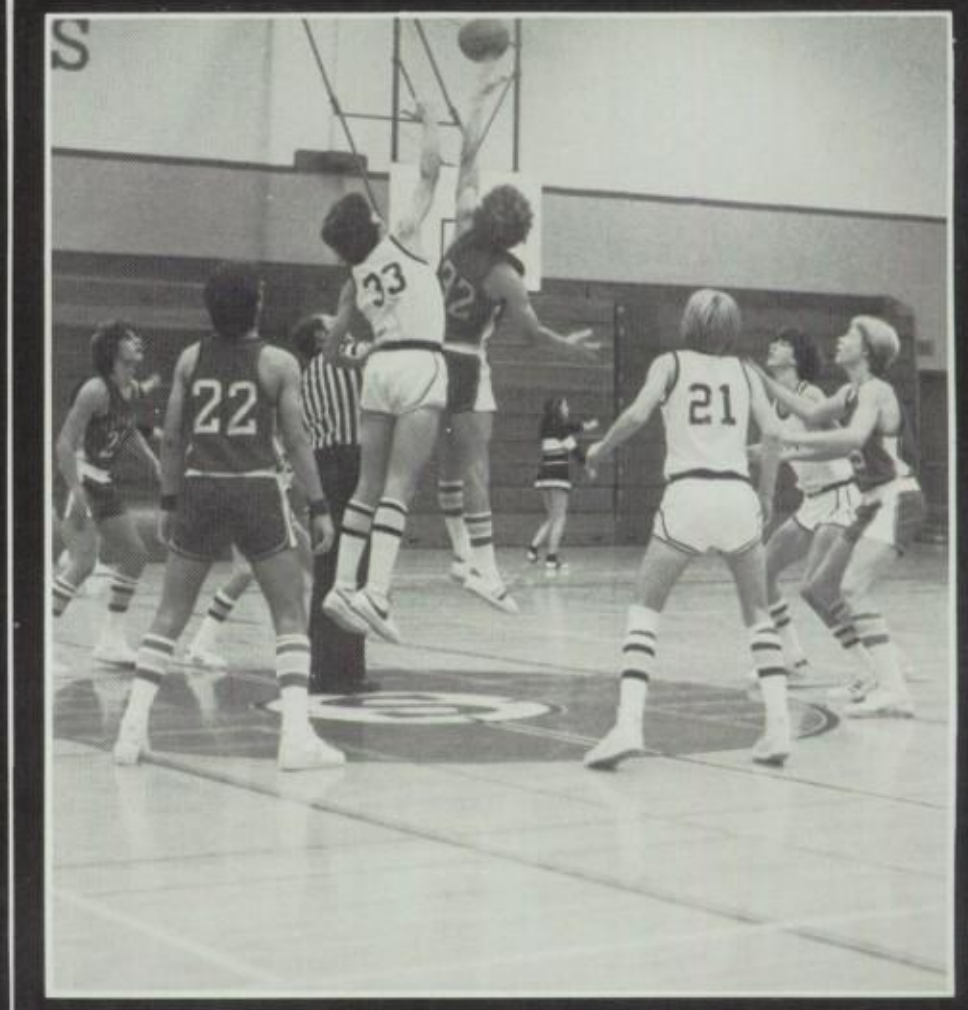


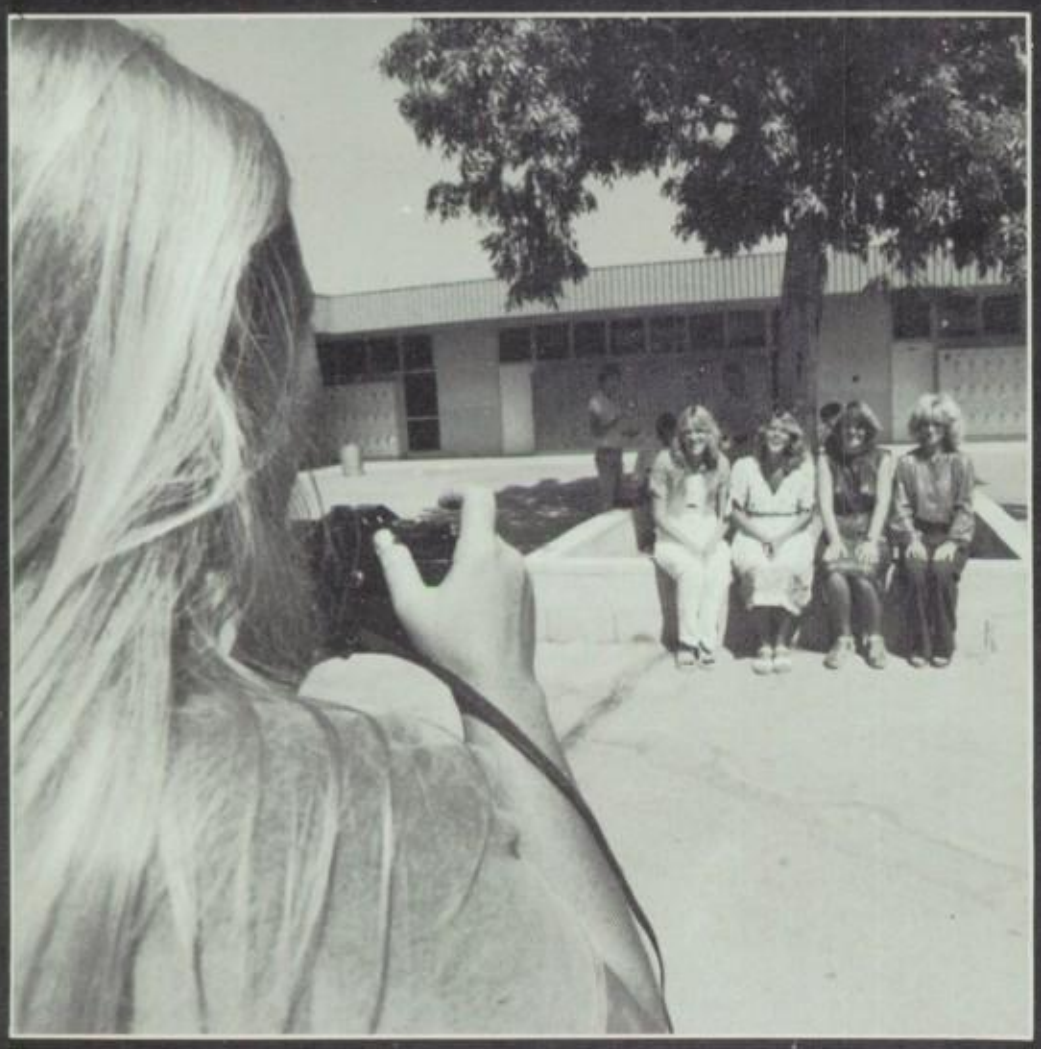
December

Early December days were hot with temperatures in the 80's. After a couple of weeks the mercury dropped and Rebs wore their brightly colored down ski jackets to school. Unfortunately there was no snow in the mountains. All the Rebel ski bums dreamed of a white Christmas, a white January, February, March etc.. . . The Mighty Marching Rebels performed in the Antelope Valley Parade and Field Show. Band came away with first place over all, Flags won the sweepstakes trophy for over all performance, and Drill team took fourth place in field and fifth in parade. The basketball participated in the Corritos-Gahr, Santa Ana, and Orange Holiday Classic Tournaments. The wrestling team placed four men in the Valenica Tournament. Compassionate students dug in their cupboards to donate to the I.C.C. canned food drive. Girls' league sold candy canes and C.S.F. sold Christmas carnations. Vocal music performed at Holiday In Music on December 12th. The theme for the musical was "The Year of the Child." The exciting sounds of Savanna Jazz Band were heard on the 13th. Band, Flags and Drill team led the Disneyland Christmas Parade on the 15th. Band and choir performed in a Holiday Concert on the 18th. Rebs attended a Christmas assembly before their long awaited (and much needed) Christmas vacation. Merry Christmas Rebels and good luck in 1980.

January

The beginning of a new decade, the 1980's brought forth a new found energy and excitement to Rebels. The freshness of school beginning on the 7th and getting ready for finals kept Rebs busy through most of January. New Year's resolutions were made. The wrestling team resolved to win every match possible. Students resolved to study hard for mid-term exams. Girls' League put on a fashion show in the auditorium. Rain fell from the sky for days bringing relief to the thirsty California soil. Hostages were still being held in Iran, days of waiting and anguish. Gas prices rose to an outrageous price, as much as $1.15 a gallon. As the month passed on, the big black cloud of final testing hung over the Savanna students. Nights spent studying and day before cramming will be long remembered by Rebs. The day after finals we had a holiday while the teachers frantically tried to get their records and grades together. The 26th was the shining night of the Winter Formal at Mission Viejo Country Club. Seniors were measured for caps and gowns, second semester Congress reps were nominated, and January was gone.





As the semester began seniors began to be very nostalgic about their last semester at Savanna. NHS held a paper drive all month long. Senior announcements were ordered. All proud Rebs sponsored the baseball players in the Hit-A-Thon. Senior class sold kissie grams. Drill Team went to Miss Drill Team U.S.A. and put on a fine showing. Girls' Athletics ate spaghetti dinners on the 21st.

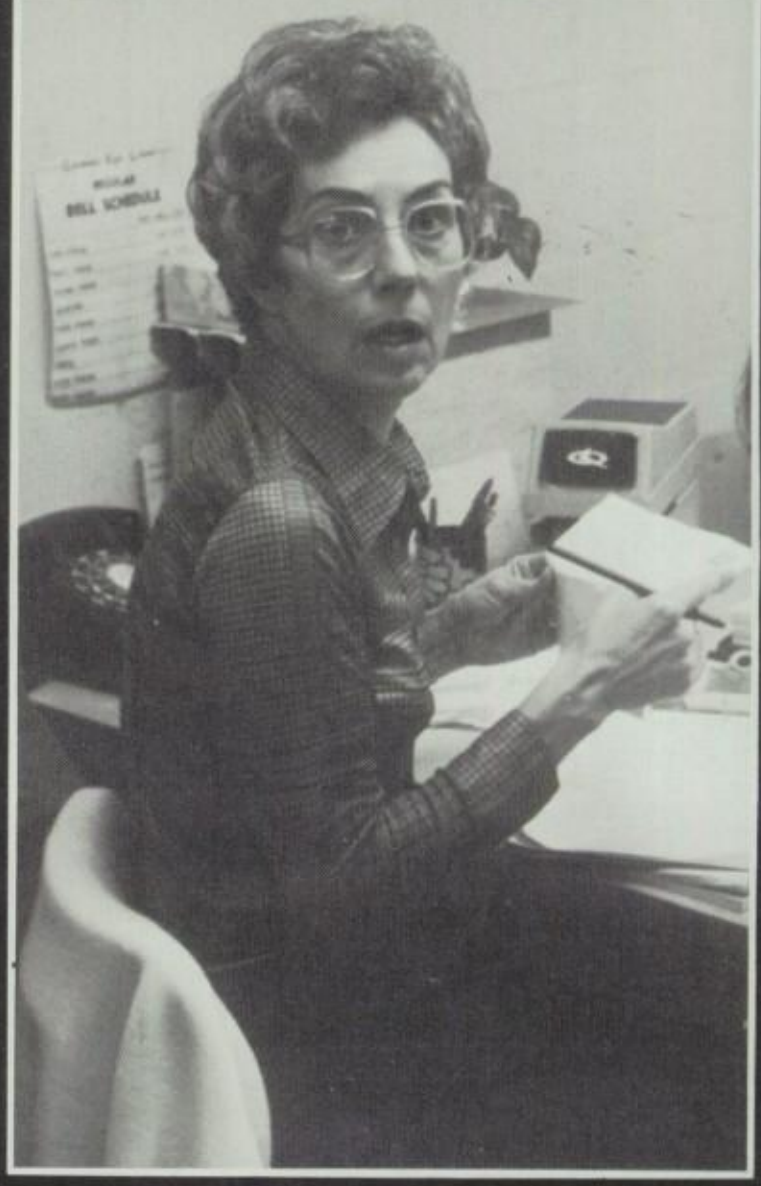
March

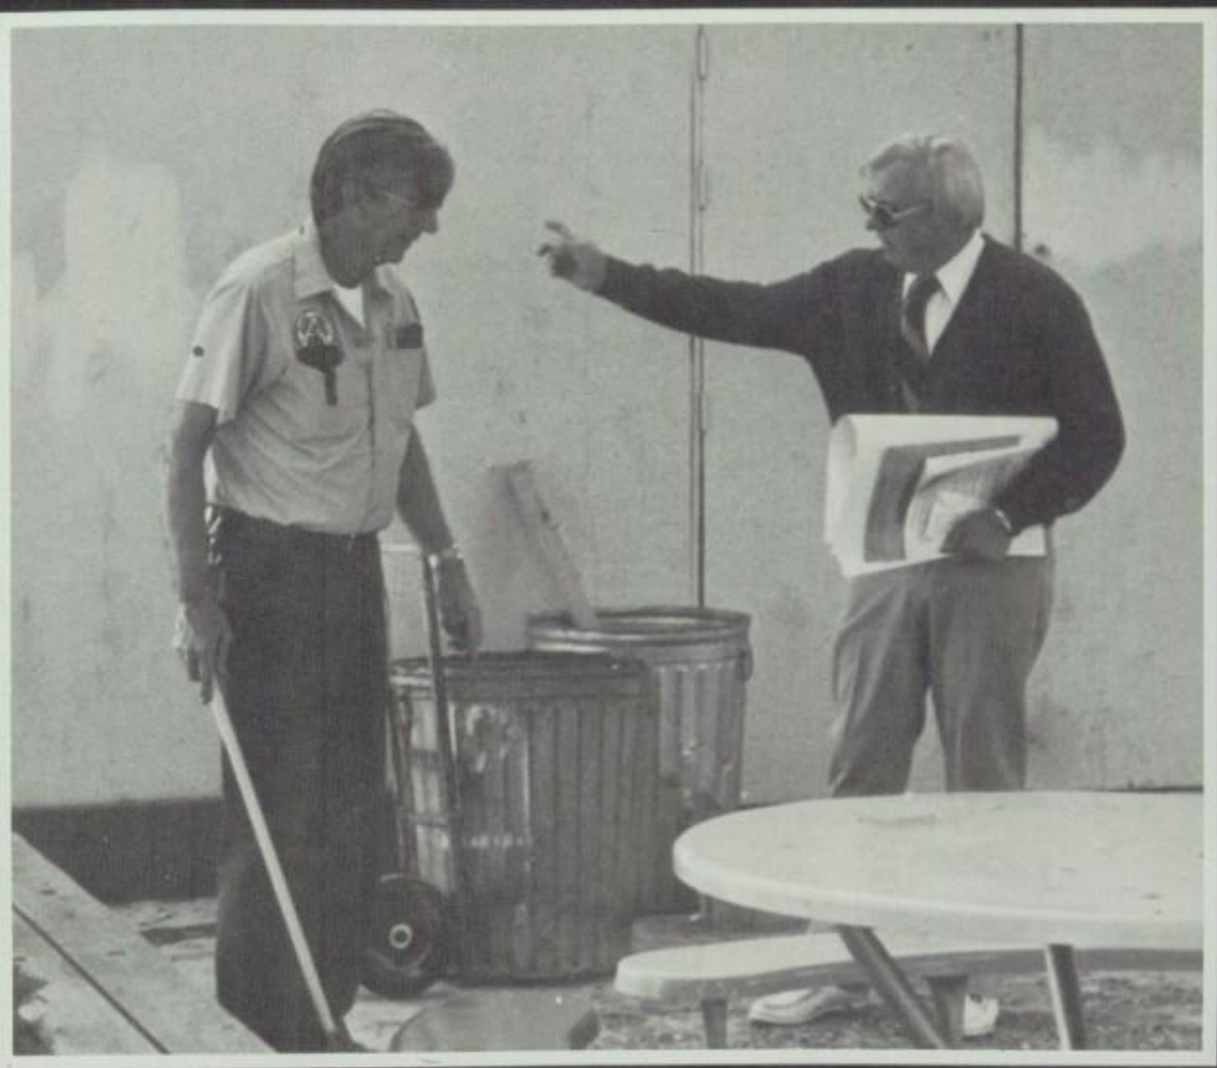
Spirit Week arrived with all its activities. Spring sports; tennis, softball, swimming, baseball, gymnastics, and badminton were underway. The mighty seniors charged against the strong juniors in the Powderpuff Football game. On the 5th Council went on a winter retreat to the mountains for a few days of snow and fun. CSF sold sweet candy bars and on the 28th the third quarter ended.

Help is HERE !



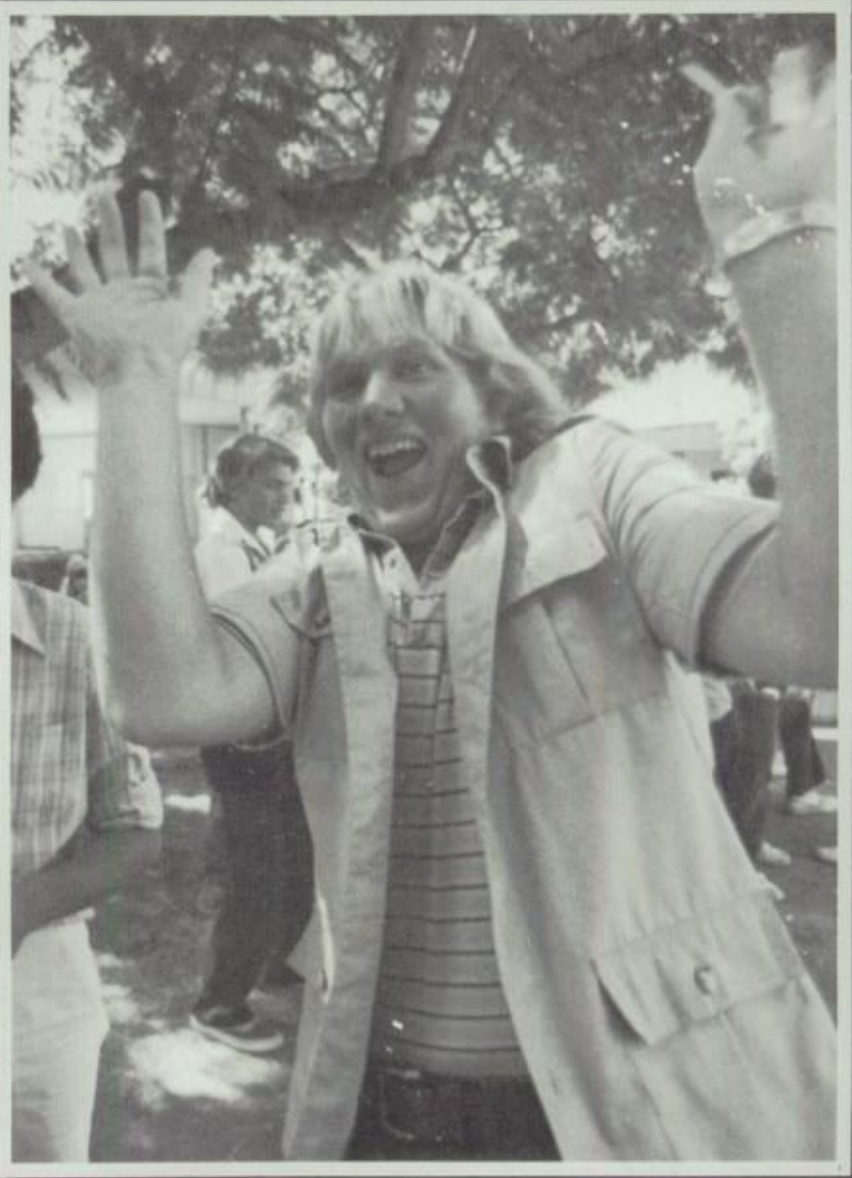
April

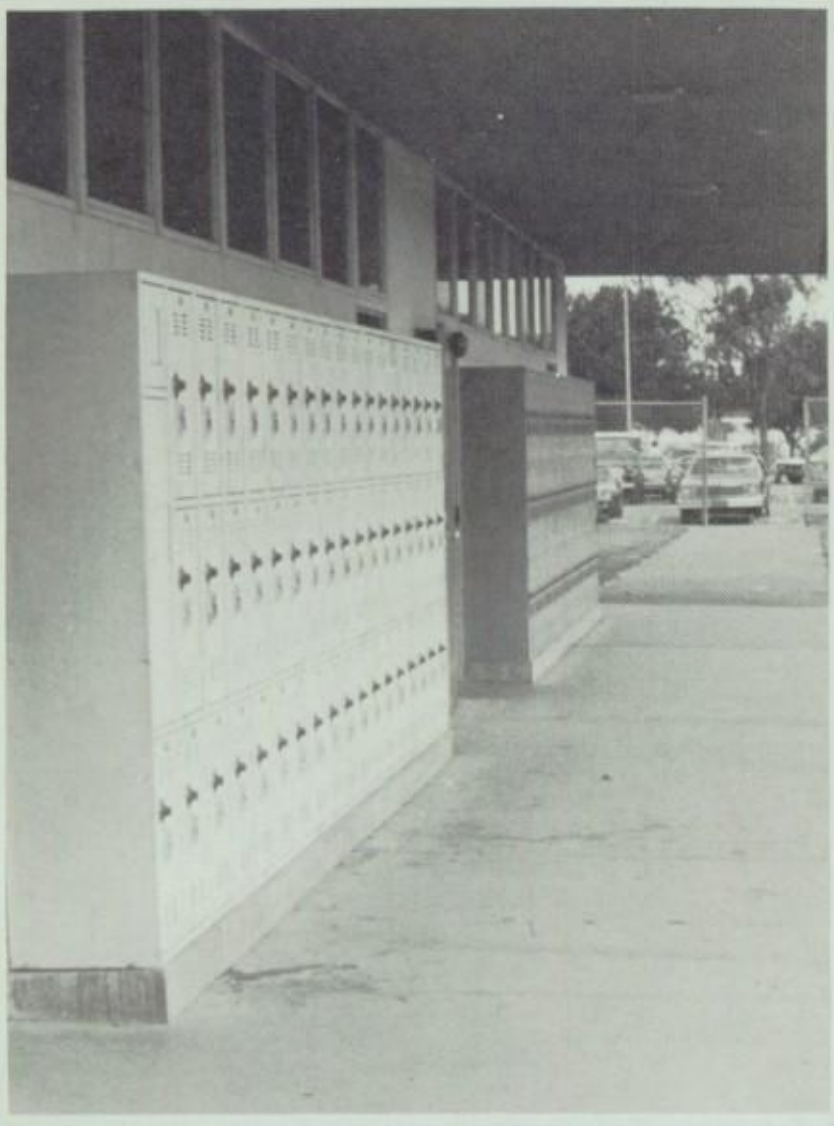
Spring recess started off the month with a little taste of summer. Then back to the books on the 7th as Rebs broke in the 4th quarter. Drill team tryouts had all the eager girls bitting their nails and practicing in the halls. On the 12th the NHS Induction Banquet recognized scholastic Rebels. The Dispatch was out. Badminton League finals were held at Sunny Hills. Before we knew it April was gone and only two more months to go.



May

May always seems like the longest month of the whole year. The minutes seem like hours, the hours like days. The weather was warmer, the beach was tempting, and the sun felt so good on our bare feet. The 2nd and 3rd was the exciting Rebel show. Entertainment was provided and new ASB officers and Drill Team leaders were announced. Spring sport finals were held. Junior Senior Prom was held on the 17th. Band dazzled during their annual spring concert.





June

June, a mere two weeks at the end of years of books, tests, lunch money, and lockers. Seniors were no longer children but adults entering a new world. Awards banquets were held for drill team, choir, band, athletics and seniors. Final tests were taken. On the 12th at Anaheim Convention Center a proud group of senior Rebels wearing red caps and gowns walked toward a crisp rolled white scroll — a diploma.

Nurds And Senior Citizens

Monday was a great start for Homecoming Week. Everyone was enthusiastic for the ski movie. Baby Bottle Races were held during lunch. Junior, Todd Trevett proved to be the fastest drinking baby. Since the day was Nurd Day, spirited Rebs dressed in high water pants and owl glasses.

Tuesday was a new and unique dress day. On Generation Day Seniors became grandparents, Juniors dressed as parents, and Sophomores as children. During nutrition Senior, Monica Montoya won the Marshmallow Cram. During lunch Sophomores, Jim Elm and Karen Gustafson ate up their licorice lickity-split in the Licorice Race.

Red And Gray And Disney Day

Back at the ranch, Wednesday was traditional Western Day. Round 'em up and bring out the horses. Senior cowboy, Robert Atkins took away the Toothpaste Race during nutrition and Junior, Phil Hamrick won the Candle Shoot during lunch.

Thursday, Color Day, the campus was decorated red and white. A spirited pep assembly was held after 2nd period. During lunch, Senior Dale Mitchell and Sophomore Mike Jones tied 1st place for the Orange and Potato Swing.

Friday was Disney Day. Mickey Mouse and Minnie were the most popular couple. Cris Mendoza, Sophomore, won the Donut Chomp and Junior, Colleen Horton won the all-time favorite Scuzz Out.

When points were totaled at the end of the week, the Sophomores came out on top with a mere 1½ points over the Juniors with the Seniors trailing. No matter how the points came out it is a well known fact that everybody had a good time and loads of fun.

Rebs Defeat Sentinels 28-7

A whistle blew. The kick. Run. Tackle. Win. Don Lane was running, 20-15-10-5, touchdown. "Do it again, do it again. We like it, we like it." Anthony Sepulveda did it. Touchdown. Donnie Iasparro makes the extra point. More screaming pom-poms flying. Confederate flags waving. The Magnolia Sentinels were down. Their offense could not move the ball forward. Lewis Ferguson scored another touchdown. End of first half. During half-time the Mighty Marching Rebels took over the field. Rebels heard entertaining music from the theme "Dixie." Drill Team and Flags put on top-rate performances. Shiny MG's drove along the sidelines bringing in the Homecoming Court: Michael Deckert, Terri Martinez, Anthony Sepulveda, Lisa Dickerson, Kevin Baehr, Kebra Lunde. The handsome court stood together, the crowd was breathless, 1978 Homecoming King and Queen, Dave Verduzco and Tisha PavoReal were present, drumroll please. The announcement, King Kevin Baehr, Queen Lisa Dickerson. Kevin looked embarrassed, Lisa cried. Parents smiled, "oh they grow up so fast." Cameras flashed. Second half. The Sentinels held the Rebs to a third quarter. In the fourth Rebs let them have one touchdown and Charlie Lucas passed to Phil Rivera to score the fourth touchdown. Final score 28-7. Only one game won all season, but what a way to go.

Starry, Starry Night Sets Homecoming Mood

A clear, beautiful, starry night had all in a festive mood. The Homecoming Dance was held at Buena Park Community Center from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Over one hundred couples attended the dance about one-fourth of these couples were alumni. The Senior House planned a fun, entertaining event. Music was provided by a local rock and roll band, "City Lights." Refreshments were served. Everyone had a good time and the dance will be remembered by all, especially seniors.

Gettin' Wild & Crazy During Spirit Week

Spirit week comes but once a year. It was devoted to Seniors. This week at the beginning of March was busy and fun-filled. One could not help but feel spirited while participating in the crazy games planned by Student Council and Commissioner of Pep, Paige Shedlowski.

To begin the week Monday was Occupation Day. Rebs came dressed as policemen, athletes, astronauts, scientists, and in many other imaginative costumes. During nutrition students were divided into teams for the obstacle race. The idea was to hold a glass of water with the mouth and make it through the crazy course of obstacles. A sponge toss during lunch cooled everybody off.

Tuesday was Opposite Sex Day. Males paraded in dresses and females acted tough and rowdy. During nutrition a new variation of the famous scuzz out was held, a make-up scuzz out. Frisbees flew through hoops during the Frisbee Contest.

Male Drill Team Shows Their Stuff

Wednesday was Senior Day. Seniors were considered special, (more than usual). The quad was decorated in a mass of red and white. A lunch line was reserved for Seniors only. A pep assembly and penny trails during lunch had everyone excited for the powderpuff game soon to come. The male cheerleaders and drill team performed their antics, throwing the crowd into hysterical fits of laughter. The cheerleaders had been practicing for weeks before the game. The girls were not unprepared. They practiced early morning hours under excellent coaching.

Music Day had arrived. Rock "n" rollers, new wave punks, and country western stars cruised the campus. Nutrition and lunchtime activities included a safety pin contest and a V.W. push.

Overalls, checkered scarves and straw hats were the typical attire on Friday, Hillbilly Day. Rebs drank eggs during the famous Rocky contest, a la Sylvester Stallone. During lunch the powerful seniors challenged the mighty juniors to a grueling game of Tug-Of-War.

Saturday night Rebels attended the Sadie Hawkins Dance, always a lot of fun, and like Spirit Week, always wild and crazy.

Gotta Have That Spirit!

Boy Of 1980

Certain students stand out in a crowd, seem to be everywhere at once, and contain enough spirit to be involved in most school activities. Bill Shuler proved to be one of these students. Bill's great sense of knowing "what to say" has won him many speech awards.

As a sophomore he entered the journalism room. Due mostly to Bill, The Dispatch has reached new heights in editorial credibility. Acting as Editor-In-Chief of the newspaper during his senior year he brought new ideas and organization to the paper. He was involved in student government all of his "Rebel" lifetime and acted as Student Body President during his senior year. Bill is a well organized, intelligent young man who has only just begun to make the most if his fine qualities. Congratulations, BOY OF THE YEAR!

Organizations

Pep Club Inspires Enthusiasm

Spirit is the essence of a school's survival. Certain proud leaders must promote school spirit. These leaders were members of Pep Club. Twenty active members met every Wednesday. After school they painted signs and sold spirit items throughout the year. Requirements for membership included a strong school spirit, willingness to attend all Pep Club functions, and support all school athletics. Mrs. Mallory advised the group while Paige Shedlowski, Comm. of Pep presided over the club. Pep Club is one of the oldest clubs on campus and because of this it has many traditions passed from year to year. Decorating the quad at 4:30 a.m. on Homecoming Day, secret pals, and helping to plan Spirit Week are a few of these passed on traditions.

Catch The Spirit

Since the opening of Savanna cheerleaders have promoted spirit, cheered at all games and performed well done routines. This year was no exception. The cheerleaders chanted as loud as ever and showed their Savanna Spirit in every move they made. The girls practiced long hours to strive for perfection. Under their advisor Mr. Anderson they worked very hard and did an excellent job for the year of 1979-1980.

The Savanna Song leaders did an outstanding job this year. It took many hours of long hard practice and effort. The girls had a regular class sixth period every day under the leadership of their advisor Mr. Anderson. Their routines were exceptional and they had a great deal of talent and coordination. The Song Leaders performed at games and pep assemblies and promoted spirit everywhere during the 1979-1980 season.

J.V. Cheer Promotes Spirit

The 1979-80 Junior Varsity cheerleaders were all sophomores. Leader, Andrea Woody pushed the group to be the proudest, most spirited cheerleaders ever. The squad came back from UC Santa Barbara leadership camp with trophies in excellence and the spirit stick. Practicing long hours 6th period and after school brought out top qualities in cheers and yells. Junior Varsity, congratulations on a fine year.

Interact was a group of concerned Rebels who wish to help the community around them. Working together to serve at monthly meetings new ideas were discussed. A few of Interact's activities were serving Christmas dinner to the blind, adopting grandparents, and taking handicapped children to Disneyland. The club, in its fourth year added twenty new members. President, Rosa Aguilar added that the club was student organized and functioned, making it a very special Savanna organization.

Kidding Around

This past year the nursery school class had a total of twenty girls and Mrs. Boyer to keep the class occupied. This class worked with 3 and 4 year olds. The aides were in charge of planning activities such as: fixing lunch, indoor and outdoor supervision, and over all fun. Motor and social developments were stressed upon as well as peer communication.

ICC Plans Canned Food Drive

Inter-Club Council (I.C.C.) worked to organize all of Savanna's clubs. The group was composed of the presidents or other representatives of all the clubs and organizations on campus. Twenty active members participated in the canned food drive for needy families. During February ICC sold candy to raise funds for the Rebel Show. ICC president, Jennifer King, helped to organized the Rebel Show which was one of the most exciting happenings of the school year.

Editor's Message

Putting together a yearbook is an experience. Necessary qualities are creativity, a great deal of determination, artistic ability, a positive attitude, and a large bottle of asprin. The idea behind a school annual is a memory book. For some reason in a Rebel's future life he will look back at these pages and remember some of his most enjoyable, cherished days. Savanna is a school spirit. Not just football spirit or pep rally spirit; but believing in a school enough to fight for it (the student body); willing to spend endless hours planning fun activities, interesting assemblies, and unusual events (the student council); practicing early morning and after school to be number #1, the best (the athletes); and sitting at a desk surrounded by blue yearbook quad-packs, with ideas running through the head, a pen in hand, transferring my spirit from brain to paper. Special thanks to Larry Klus of Albert and James Studios, Mr. Jim Kimmitt of Taylor Publishing Co. and Mr. William Anderson, Advisor. Good luck Class of '80. Always proud, always Rebels.

Leading In Step

6 A.M. in the morning, the air is frosty, the red and white colors can barely be seen through the fog. A sharp whistle blew and five girls march in step, backs arched, heads held proudly. These five girls, the Rebel-Anne-Drill Team leaders practiced endless hours perfecting dance routines and pre-game drills. Head leaders Bess Dorlis and Jennifer King smiled, kicked and dazzled their way to Miss Drill Team U.S.A. Their award winning team placed in the top three in almost every competition. Shining at the performance was typical of the 1979-1980 leaders and these five girls proved to be indeed leaders.

Precision And Grace

Marching in step, coordinating flags, tossing a rifle in the air and catching it were not easy tasks but Savanna Flag and Rifle Corps handled it with precision. Early morning practices initiated perfection for the girls. First place trophies in parade competitions speak for themselves. Under the leadership of Mr. Lowery the girls competed in competition and performed during halftimes as well as the spring Rebel Show. This winning group was top notch in their field.

Rebs On The March

The Mighty Marching Rebel Band carried on the tradition of again being one of the most exciting, percise marching units in Southern California. This was proved at the Antelope Valley Tournament where they "marched off" with the 1st place trophy, they were accompanied by the outstanding talents of the Flag Corps, who recieved Sweepstakes. The group began practice in August, where new sophomores were taught different techniques and styles of marching, while the returning members rushed up on the new drills.

When the band wasn't in a competition, they attended such outings as, The Band and Drill Team Spectacular, The annual Disneyland Parade. The Marching Band also put on great performances during halftime at all the home games.

Music At Its Best

Concert Band is for the musician who wants to broaden his musical knowledge. The band performed in many concerts some in our auditorium and gym and of course the annual District Festival where Savanna has consistantly taken all 1's in the ratings. The music performed this past year ranged from Bach Chorals to themes from movies such as "Superman," and theme from Star Trek — The Motion Picture. The band which consisted of 63 members awaited the prospects of a trip to Mt. Baker which is in Washington and also to Victoria, Canada, which was planned for March 28th-April 1st. The band which was conducted by Mr. Mark Lowrey had a very exciting and rewarding year musically and scholastically, meaning three of all of our talented members were chosen to the All Southern California High School Honor Band, those students were Kevin Richardson, Harold Manning, and Michelle Zola. Congratulations!

Pure Music

Pure Music was one description you could use when talking about Jazz Band. The group visited and sometimes competed in many festivals. A festival is where schools from all over the district and sometimes all over California show their talent, some of the places the group attended were the Mt. Antonio Festival and the Uni-Festival, CSF. The Jazz Band consisted of 20 of the most versatile, talented members of the school each of them expressing their moods through their special, musical talents.

Student Store Serving Savanna

Without your desire for food the student store would not have been in business. This year the student store had a record amount of dedicated students working hard to serve you, the Savanna student body. Had it not been for them on those frosty, cold mornings we would have done without our delicious hot chocolate.

What many students at Savanna probably did not know is that there were a lot more to the student store than just serving its customers. All of the students were involved in ordering supplies, counting money, determining prices, stocking shelves and taking inventory. Thank you student store for a job well done.

Sa-Rebs Add To Savanna Culture

The Sa-Rebs was a well organized group, with Lorraine Mortimer as president, that took the time that many of us did not have, to serve others. They went to the Braille Institute and helped the blind on their field trips, went to hospitals and visited with patients, took toys to Choc, sang Christmas Carols at Convalescent Hospitals and helped with Back to School Night.

The Sa-Rebs were one of the oldest organizations and had time after time won Club of the Year.

Rebels Regroup For New Season

The Rebels started their new season after an uncertain summer of numerous coaching changes and the threat of having Savanna closed. After losing many stand out talents from the previous two years, the Rebels found themselves in need of some strengthening at most positions. Consider the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 5-25 in their first two seasons in the National Football League, who exploded onto the playoff scene this year after two sub-par years of being in the building stage. The Rebels too are rebuilding and are also explosive as showed against Magnolia after a somewhat sluggish start the Rebels appeared to get slightly and played better football in the later stages of the season as the younger players began to mature. The offense, although inconsistent, showed ability with a wide open running game and what could be the best passing game in Orange County next fall. The special teams produced a 77 yard run back versus Troy, again showing their special kind of game breaking ability. The defense was often tenacious and tenacity is an important phase of the defensive game. Above all else, the Rebels showed their spirit by engulfing Magnolia in the homecoming game, 28-7. After an off season workout consisting of, among other things, three heavy lifting periods, scrimages, well organized practices and a passing league set up by coach Everett the Rebels should be ready to burn some second stage fuel as next season approaches.

New Faces, New Season,

Last year the Sophomore turnout was small. New coaches Dennis Josyln, former head coach at Cresent Junior High, and two fine alumni players as assistant coaches. The assistant coaches were Dave Norman and Mike Brunner. The players learned the basic fundamentals of offenses and defenses as they will go to the varsity team in the future. WE AT SAVANNA ARE PROUD OF THE FINE EFFORTS OF THE COACHES AND THE TEAM.

Rebels Run To Victory

Despite a 3-4 record, the Savanna Cross Country team had a fine season. One of their victories came against a stubborn Saddleback team 28-29. The Cross Country team showed their real talent by rolling over Western and Magnolia. Alan Just finished first in five of the seven meets with three consecutive mid-season. Todd Wheeler, Paul Raber and Dave Walston had strong finishes this season, placing in many of the meets.

New Coach New Concepts

When Coach Tom Gregory came to Savanna this past season after coaching at Buena Park the previous five years, he brought the Rebels a new offense. Considering he only had time to meet with the squad ten times during the summer, it looks as though he has succeeded in converting the offensive concepts of the Savanna varsity squad. Last year the Rebels ran a slowed down, set up type of offense, but in the 1980 season coach Gregory had the team going for the fast break and running, making good use of the excellent team speed and getting good results.

Dedicated Dribbles

The Savanna Rebels varsity squad played much better basketball than their record indicated. The Rebel's first five losses were by an average of five points per game, including consecutive one point losses to Western and Magnolia. Rebounding was a weak point of the Rebels and undoubtedly the noticeable was for more height, someone to take charge of the boards in the close games they were losing. Given more time with Coach Gregory and a year's exposure to the fast break offense and pressing defense next year's squad should come through in the clutch situations, win the close games, and earn themselves a berth in the playoffs.

JV Improvement A Good Sign For 80-81

The JV Basketball team under the direction of Coach Campbell, ex-football player for the Champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, had a season to every one's satisfaction. They had a big win over Western 58-50 and Magnolia 46-41. This should help next year's team to be a contender in our league.

The 1980 Boys' Varsity Tennis Team was coached by Mr. Hansen and had a good season this year. There was a lot of talent and hard effort shown on the team. Rebels Prove To Be Strong Again

Savanna has always been known for it's strong baseball program, and this was shown at the Varsity Alumni game with such superstars a Don Aase and Glenn Hoffman being present. Savanna's talent was also quite apparent at the El Segundo Tournament, where the Rebels made a strong showing. The 1980 baseball season found the Rebels with their third new coach in the past three years. Coach Clint Stark, with many years of valuable coaching experience including three years as a professional coach, inherited a fine winning program. Coach Stark, like his predecessors, stressed the fundamentals and as a result the Rebels were a well conditioned and well disciplined team. Unusually soggy weather kept the Rebels from the practice field and as a result the defense was not set until after the start of the season. Despite this setback and the fact that there were only four players with true Varsity experience, the Rebels played well in all aspects of the game. The Rebels again had the strength and talent that they have shown through the years and made a good showing in a very tough league.

The 1980 varsity track team under the new leadership of head coach Woody Fries showed the potential needed to regain its Freeway League Championship. Tournament Team Is Proud Savanna for the fifth year hosted the CIF Invitational Volleyball Tournament. Although last year's squad consisted of four returning Varsity players: Lola Herrera, Candy Lenca, Lori VanAntwerp, and Barb Wickell, the Rebels didn't place. Unfortunately they lost their first game but suceeded in going to the semi-finals of the consolation bracket. The tournament was held on two Friday and Saturdays in a row.

All The Way — CIF

For the third year in a row Savanna's Girl's Volleyball team qualified to go to CIF playoffs. With the coaching help of Ms. Creighton and Ms. Crawford the Rebels managed to go to the second round of CIF play. The first round was played in our own gym, against a strong Rubidoux team. In winning the first round of play they then went to Alta Loma High School to play a very evenly matched game, but unfortunately they weren't as successful as in the first round which ended our CIF play for this year.

J.V. Team League Champs

After long hours of hard, hot practice during the summer and after school, the J.V. Volleyball team finally felt victory, the smoothness and shiny glitter of a first place Freeway League trophy. Running On Energy

With the strong leadership of Captain, Jackie Dall and Coach Smick the girls' cross country team gained much valuable experience. The team was small, only eight runners. They ran everyday covering one to three miles. The team ran two miles in meets. Most people think of running as a boring sport but these Rebels see it as a time for concentration. It is also one of the best forms of exercise building muscle and endurance. Running is a sport for the determined and strong.

Playing Hard & Winning In Style

This year's Girls' Tennis Team played well under the new coaching style of Miss Diane Owens. The girls fought hard with the help of their new coach to place fourth in league with a record of 5-8-1. Watch The Birdie

When observing badminton one may think of it as a fairly easy game of hitting a little shuttlecock (commonly called birdie) across the net. On the contrary it is a difficult sport requiring long hours of practice using various forms of hitting the bird, such as the smash. The Savanna badminton team though not large was very skilled. Returning players were Wendy Aaron and Lori Allison. These girls combined with promising new talent were tough competition to other schools in the Freeway League.

Running To Win

This past year's Girls' Track Team, coached by Mr. Hastings, should be proud. The effort put out by this team was shown in their outstanding exhibitions in their many meets. Their talent in runners, jumpers and relays really showed through. Girls returning to the team were: Niome King, and Becky Ziegenhaven.

Instant Swimmers . . . Just Add Water

Proud Rebel swimmers crawled out of warm, cozy beds in the early morning hours. Still half asleep they dove into still, cool water and swam. Yards and yards of constant pulling and kicking to perfect strokes. Dedicated as they were this team of strong, hard-working girls proved to be the toughest competition in the Freeway League. Returning varsity swimmers led their teammates to a successful season. Swim is considered to be one of the healthiest of sports, and those girls set out to prove it.

Tumbling To The Top

As the spring sports season got under way, so did women's athletics such as girls' gymnastics. This partly accounted for the success of the teams. All of the girls including returning lettermen Beti O'Neil, Barb Wickle, and Lyndi Horton spent long hours practicing and put out a fantastic effort pre-season, preparing for each of the different areas of competition, bringing well deserved wins to Savanna.

We The People

Entering a beginning
Leaving behind . . .
Warm days of fruit punch
and crumpled History cheat sheets,
Red frisbees flying over bent heads cramming for English spelling tests.
Faded class schedules
and plastic megaphones,
Pep ribbons sold for 10¢
Lime snow cones — 35¢
Rebel mittens, scarves and
Class of '80 T-shirts,
Blue ink pens that could never be found except on days of
IBM score sheets,
Hot chocolate on blue Monday mornings,
The Buena Park pep rally,
Sun glinting off gray
lockers,
Grad parties,
Cap and gown measurements,
Fruit machine quarters,
And red sneakers worn
on game days,
Pressed homecoming mums
Winter formal photos
Memories of Shared smiles on rainy days
Pep rallies and
Wrestling matches
When laughter was easy
As we reach out and touch
